

No.	Business	School	LEO
27	Comestibles	Colaiste Chiarain, Croom	Limerick	Zero waste, environmentally friendly edible serving bowls.
28	Loggies Woodcraft	Inver College	Monaghan	Indoors and outdoors, enjoy the timeless, multi-functional, rustic character of the Loggie. Can be used as a seat, to relax the feet or as a simple display in the home. Timeless!
29	Snazzy	Ramsgrange Community School	Wexford	Cute koala teddies made from fluffy socks. Each teddy made by Rachel is called a 'Snazzy'.
30	Sala Sios	Presentation School, Castleisland	Kerry	3D Printed Horse Stirrup Attachment
31	Hanger Helpers	Presentation School, Clonmel	Tipperary	Personalised Hanger tags which help organise and coordinate your wardrobe, also aimed at people with dementia to help them remember names of clothing and what matches what.
32	Carraig Craic	Seamount College, Kinvara	Galway	A business using sustainable materials from around us to produce handmade jewellery and decor inspired by Celtic Ireland.
33	Foot Fresh	Loreto Secondary School, Kilkenny	Donegal	The team developed and sold an innovative deodorant/airfreshener specifically for usage inside footwear
34	Rainbows of the World	Scoil Mhuire, Lahinch	Clare	T-shirts with empowering messages and quotes
35	Hooked	St. Gerald's Castlebar	Mayo	An affordable shopping bag holder made from acrylic with 3 hooks making carrying multiple bags much easier.
36	Kindness Tokens	Easkey College	Sligo	Kindness Tokens: Handmade Credit Tokens tell the world you notice. Buy Swap, and Trade your way to an elevated attitude. This caring cash banks kindness in wooden tallies. Finally you found where to buy happiness!
37	Aim it Board	Loreto College, St. Stephen's Green	Dublin City	The top spot in the Dublin City Intermediate category went to the students of Loreto College, Stephen's Green with their product ' Aim It '. Designed to improve hand-eye coordination, maths and attention, this simple, yet effective, basketball trainer helps players hone their point scoring skills. The product is portable, easy to use and eco friendly and the team impressed the judges with both their innovation and their tenacity to capture not only the student market but those of creches and basketball clubs too.
38	Box Tree	St. Patrick's Classical School, Navan	Meath	Simple Affordable gift boxes for holidays and special events
39	Choose Candle Holders	Edmund Rice School	Fingal	Production of artisanal candleholders which are environmentally conscious.
40	I'm Buzzing	Drogheda Grammar School	Louth	Environmentally aware business that make wax wraps which can be used to wrap sandwiches and seed Bags for Growing flowers
41	Bee and Bug Houses	Colaiste Eamonn Ris, Callan	Kilkenny	High-quality bee and bug houses designed to protect them from the elements. Made from recycled materials and come with wild flower seeds to attract garden bees
42	The Three Harry's	Wesley College	DLRD	Unique, quality, handmade, eco-friendly products using innovative sourcing of supplies and production processes to make: festive bunting, decorative frames, greeting cards and candleholders. Sold into varied markets using promotion informed by margins and volume.

